Youth’s focus groups

I don’t think I feel so strong about helping other people relieve stress, but I feel better about helping myself. I learned a lot and I need some more time so that I can feel confident to help other people. Right now, I just want to focus on what I learned for myself.

I really liked all the topic we talked about and thought the presentation was really good. I agree with my classmate that this is something everyone should do. Everything is what happens with us, and it make us think about how we can change things.
